

A boxplot showing the distribution of the number of children per family. The y-axis is labeled 'Number of children' and ranges from 0 to 10. The boxplot has a median at 3, a first quartile at 2, and a third quartile at 4. Whiskers extend from 1 to 5. There are several outliers represented by red '+' symbols at 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10.

Set point of induction of BC187